

The Fehrer Automotive – Rába Kft. (based in Mór, Hungary) invites applications for long-term work in the following position:

PLANT MANAGER

Job details, tasks

- The plant manager is responsible for the manufacturing of the products according to demand and quality in compliance with cost targets.
- Development and supervising of capacity planning, plant utilisation and cost budgets
- Optimisation of manufacturing processes and degree of utilised capacity
- Permanent reduction of manufacturing costs
- Support of product development due to special manufacturing know-how
- Implementation of an efficient system of improvement
- Take a successful QMS ISO/TS 16949 (re-)certification

Authority

- Take a suggestion of necessary investments
- Implementation of investments released in the budget
- Introduction of improving measures in product specifications
- Approve of serial production (discharge of project manager, taking over product responsibility)
- Implement of customer appointments in accordance with customer divisions

Requirements

- College or university degree in Technology
- Fluency in German and/or English both orally and in writing
- Managerial experience in the same field (5 years)
- Economic approach
- Stress resiliency, well solve the conflict situations
- Ready to take responsibility, problem-solving skills
- Excellent computer skills (MS Office, corporate governance system)

If you are interested in the position, send your photo and CV in Hungarian, German and English at the following address:

Rába Automotive Components Manufacturing Ltd.
Human Resource Development Division
H-8060 Mór, Ipartelep, Hungary
e-mail: karoly.hajdu@raba.hu